

GOFFE'S FALLS

Transitions on Cohas

The Cohas is dammed to form Pine Island Pond, then rushes toward the Merrimack River

The Cohas wends its way from Lake Massabesic, at times timid, at times mighty and rushing

The Cohas has provided a living for the communities that have risen on its banks

10,000 years ago
Aboriginal Tribes

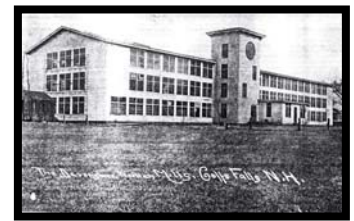

Late 1600s
Passaconaway
Penacook Chief

Mid 1700s – Mid 1800s
Colonial Mill Village

Late 1800s – early 1900s
Textile Mill Village

1880s - The Elms Resort
sold 1984 – now The Highlander

Pine Island
Amusement park
1901 to late mid

With Faith Visible

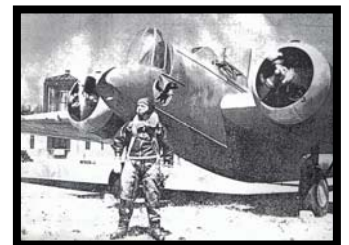

1889 - Bethany Chapel
Still serving

1892 - St. Francis
2000 moved to Litchfield

1941 to 1966
Greiner Army Air Base

Manchester Airport

